

Women Economic Forum (WEF) 2016, New Delhi, India May 16-21, 2016

Dates: May 16-21, 2016

Venue: Pullman-Novotel Hotel New Delhi, India

Theme: “Women: Uplifting and Uniting the World”

Participants: 1500 women from 75 countries; the largest such gathering of diverse women from the world over

Profiles: galaxy of global and grassroots leaders from all walks of life.

Sessions: 408 sessions on 28 themes like business, technology, entrepreneurship, industry, health, travel, spirituality, peace, diplomacy, security, conflict resolution, personal leadership, innovation, research etc.

Duration: 6 days and 5 nights

Fees: Zero conference ticket fee. Only boarding and lodging costs apply (plus a gift of one week additional “Discover India” complimentary stay with meals at select locations, in true spirit of Indian hospitality).

Goal: Energize women’s entrepreneurship and leadership

About Women Economic Forum (WEF) 2016:

WEF is a mega marquee global event hosted by ALL Ladies League (ALL) the world’s largest league of women. It’s an all-inclusive global community with over 20,000 members, 450 global chapters, spanning 75 countries. Our overarching objective is to exponentially enhance women’s economic progression and leadership skills and to become active change agents in all spheres of self and society.

WEF represents the coming together of collective minds, inspiring stories, talents and resources expressed in the spirit of relentless positivity and generosity, creating invaluable business ideas and partnerships as well as life long bonds of sisterhood. We gather to move ideas, inspire creativity, let our voices be heard and to rise united and uplifted.

The goal of the Women Economic Forum is that all women through learning, education, togetherness and partnerships can make themselves completely economically independent, dependent on no one but themselves for their wellbeing and survival, providing freedom from any abuse or oppression advancing the progression of their personal and professional growth.

The WEF 2016 agenda encompasses a broad scope of 28 themes, shared within 408 sessions. Themes include global business development, technology, entrepreneurship, fashion and lifestyle, music and arts, health and fitness, travel, peace and spirituality, diplomacy, security, conflict resolution, personal leadership, innovation, social empowerment, startups and more! We invite you to share your business expertise or your message or cause as a speaker, panelist or moderator in any of these themes.

Expand your business opportunities and increase your global influence through networking across borders with invaluable collaboration while being inspired by some of the world’s most successful entrepreneurs, authors, speakers, ambassadors, thought leaders and celebrities.

For more information about the Women Economic Forum 2016 including registration, speaking opportunities, program details and our one week complimentary invitation to “Discover India” please visit our website: <http://www.wef.org.in/> ; www.aall.in ; or visit any of the links given below.

